Its dark plum/purple color is followed by notes of melted tar intermixed with sweet cassis and floral underpinnings. Very full-bodied and dense for a Chateau Margaux, with a slight rusticity to the tannins, it boasts blockbuster power, richness, and impressive aromatics. It appears set for another 30-40 years of life." Est. 2,400 - 3,000

291	(1) A. Hardy & Cie Perfection 1st Edition 140 Years Old c1981 (1) A. Hardy & Cie Perfection Cognac 1st Edition 140 Years Old c1981 in a custom-made Daum Nancy Decanter with etched signature and numbered, Daum France, 1194/1200. Presented in a fitted and hinged French oak box. Glass stopper included etched 1194/1200. Wax seal on bottle has impressed stamp.A. Hardy & Cie Perfection 140 years is the oldest known unblended cognac in the world. The origin of the eaux-de-vie that makes this Cognac dates back to the 1870s, the Pre-phylloxera days.This is the first version, released in 1981 and limited to only 1,200 bottles. At release it was the world's most expensive cognac, certified by the Guinness Book of Records, with a retail price of USD 4,000 - at a time when Rémy Martin's Louis XIII was sold for "only" $800.Thinking of his family's future, the founder, Antoine Hardy gathered & kept several different batches of the best Cognac from what is now the Grande Champagneappellation. This Cognac is pure and unblended at a natural strength of 41% volume. Hints of Chocolate and coffee, big oak and great balance adds to the complexity. A rare Cognac for those who demand the finest. When perfection is gone, c'est fini, for it can never be duplicated. Treat yourself to a taste of history.A bottle was recently auctioned in the USA for USD 4,500 and another is listed in Europe for€6,700 tax excl.Wine-Searcher lists the average worldwide price at NZ$12,781. Est. 4,500 - 6,500
